

The Historical Dance Society
Registered Charity No. 270896

Dance Dynamics of the 1600s

A day of workshops led by Baroque musicians Frances Eustace and Colin Thompson, and dance specialist Ann Hinchliffe. Classical and folk musicians: encounter new tunes and develop insight into 16th-17th-century dance music. All acoustic instruments welcome. Dancers of all backgrounds and levels: learn 16th-17th-century steps and styles, using original material.

Saturday 15 October 2016

1030-1700h (coffee from 1000h)

Barrington Village Hall (near Ilminster) High Street, Barrington, TA19 0JE

Dance and music workshops 1030h-1300h

Afternoon dancing 1430h-1700h to live music interpreted in morning sessions, including period instruments by Doves Figary.

£8 whole day, £5 morning or afternoon

Light refreshments provided; BYO lunch or eat in village pub 200m away.

Info & booking: thedancingmaster@outlook.com or 01935 472771.

The Historical Dance Society
Registered Charity No. 270896